

The Storybook Playroom

By Ann Merideth Design

The Storybook Playroom unfolds like a page from a well-loved book—a place where imagination takes shape and everyday moments feel a little more magical.

Beneath a soft canopy of pattern and color, the room invites children to settle in and stay awhile. There are spaces to gather and spaces to retreat: a cozy daybed for shared stories, a gentle swing in motion, and a quiet window seat made for turning pages. A soft rug becomes the stage for building, creating, and dreaming.

Tucked within the room, a custom corner hideaway forms its own tiny world—perfectly scaled for whispered tales and make-believe adventures. Layers of florals, checks, and stripes lend a collected, timeless feel, while thoughtful storage keeps the rhythm of play beautifully contained.

Designed with both whimsy and intention, the room is a celebration of curiosity, comfort, and the quiet magic of childhood.
